

The Didda

By Liz Carroll (Arr Annette Collins)

This is third in a series of piano arrangements of my favourite melodies. Liz Carroll, from Chicago, is an incredible fiddle player and composer of beautiful tunes. I have always loved her work and this piece appears as a melody in her book: Collected, Original Irish Tunes.

This arrangement can be played by students who have reached Grade 3 or above. There is a short clip of me playing this arrangement on my website and it can also be found at <http://bit.ly/Annette003> - when she heard it, the composer wrote: "Beautiful playing and arrangement! All the best, Liz".

The front cover is taken from an original watercolour painted by the Irish artist Stephen Collins, and cards and prints are available.
